THE NEW COURTProvision Is Not Made for Clerical Assistance, by Congress.

It seems that the new Federal Court, presided over by Judge Woodruff is not going to prove so effective in expediting the territorial legal business of the United States as was first expected. According to the information received, no provision has been made for a clerk of the new court, and the second judge will simply occupy the bench in the absence of Judge Dole, the work to be evenly divided. It was supposed at first that the second Federal court would have all the machinery and clerical assistance that is now enjoyed by Judge Dole's court, but it appears that Congress has failed to make any provision beyond the office to be occupied by Judge Woodruff.

Teacher on Stand.
One witness was placed upon the stand yesterday in the hearing on a petition for allowance brought by Mrs. Hattie Kamanoulu, following the decree of divorce she obtained from Representative J. K. Kamanoulu. The witness was Moses Kauhiamahu, a Maui school teacher and a brother-in-law of Kamanoulu, and he testified that the Kamanoulu children were in good health while in the custody of their father and received the best of care. He also told of taking the children down town and encountering Mrs. Kamanoulu, whom he said inveigled the children from him on the pretense of buying them ice cream.

Kauhiamahu testified that he came to the city last August and was a guest at the home of Kamanoulu. He said that one day, when he took the children down town to meet their father, he encountered the divorced wife of his brother-in-law in a local store and that she immediately asked the children to leave Kauhiamahu and go with her. Kauhiamahu said that the children were loath to leave him, but that the mention of ice cream was enough to win them over and that was the last he saw of them.

The case will be resumed next week, and there is every prospect that it will drag along for a number of days. Attorney Magoon stating yesterday in reply to a question from Attorney Douthitt, that he had a number of witnesses to call in behalf of Mrs. Kamanoulu's contention that she is entitled to the custody of the children and also a monthly allowance of $75 from her divorced husband for their maintenance.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Honolulu women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Backache Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Honolulu woman's words:
"Mrs. Emma Vieira, of King street, Honolulu, Hawaii, says: 'For three or four years my back ached terribly, in fact so bad that I could not describe the misery I endured. I finally received relief through the use of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, procured at the Hollister Drug Co. I heartily recommend this remedy to anyone having backache or other kidney disorders.'
Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists and storekeepers at fifty cents per box (six boxes $2.50) or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

LEAL ROUNDS UP TWO KOREAN SUSPECTS

After an allnight search for the prowler who entered the premises of G. B. Henderson, Marston Campbell and Mr. Crockett about midnight Tuesday, Chief of Detective Leal and his men rounded up a couple of Koreans, one of whom is named Kim Kyung Sam, who has frequently been run in by the police. Kim was found at Moiliili before 6 o'clock as he was leaving a house where he says he lives. He had a bundle under his arm and this proved to be a white suit which he declared was to wash. There is a peculiarity about the trousers in that there was a fresh patch over the right knee. Kim said the patch had been there for six months. An examination shows that it was a very recent piece of work and that part of the trousers has never been washed. Some of those who were awakened by the prowler and caught sight of him state that the fellow wore a white suit.

Mr. Crockett fired five shots at the fleeing figure. The fellow who entered Henderson's house, literally dived out of an open window to the lawn. Imprints of his feet were found beneath the window and it is said that Kim's foot fits the mark very well.

LOCAL GIRL'S BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT

A brief dispatch printed in the Advertiser last week gave the story of a young Honolulu girl who had gone to New York to marry a man who had cabled a proposal to her. They were not married, and she sued him for damages and received $7000. The young lady was Miss Sophie Myers, whose father was for some time a bookkeeper for the N. S. Sachs Dry Goods Company. Mr. Myers left here about a year ago. The New York World's story of the suit appeared on April 17, as follows:

To repair the damage done by Cupid when he tried to send a shaft from Honolulu to New York without considering the range, a jury before Justice Truax in the Supreme Court yesterday brought in a verdict of $7,000 in favor of Miss Sophie Myers against Carl Kaiser, an electrical sign manufacturer, now in Australia. Miss Myers said that she and Kaiser had been schoolmates in New York and friends thereafter. Kaiser remained in New York after Miss Myers went to Honolulu, but soon decided he was miserable because Miss Myers, then only seventeen, had gone away. So he cabled to her a proposal of marriage and then wrote letters to her father and mother informing them what he had done. Miss Myers consulted her parents, and after getting their consent cabled to Kaiser that she would be his wife. She had in court the cablegrams and letters that Kaiser wrote. The one to her father ran:

"I have loved Sophie since I first met her and I want to make her my wife. I did not know it until she left the city. I felt she had an attachment for me, but thought it was that of a good friend. I can not sleep without thinking of her, and if you will consent to the marriage I promise to take better care of Sophie than I will of my own life."

Miss Myers testified that she and her parents came back to New York to prepare for the wedding. When she arrived Kaiser refused to marry her at once, and finally declared he would not wed her at all.

His actions, she testified, so worried her father that he fell ill and died soon afterward. Her mother, too, she said, suffered a nervous breakdown because of the way Kaiser had humiliated them. Justice Truax told the jury that it was one of the grossest breaches of promise he had ever heard of and directed them to bring in a verdict in favor of Miss Myers. Kaiser put in no defense. Miss Myers is only nineteen. She sued for $20,000.
